

Chinese New Year Celebration Menu

Year of the Horse, 2026

Five Elements Harmony Salad (V)

A vibrant medley of seasonal greens, roots, and colors

Representing Wood, Fire, Earth, Metal, and Water, this refreshing opening dish invites balance, renewal, and grounded vitality for the year ahead.

Prosperity Dumplings of Dual Harmony (V for the vegetable ones)

Hand-wrapped fish and vegetable dumplings

Fish symbolizes abundance, while fresh vegetables bring growth and renewal. They individually welcome wealth, nourishment, and good fortune of 2026.

Longevity Golden Sesame Noodles (V)

Lucky noodles prepared in aromatic traditional sesame sauce

A timeless symbol of long life, resilience, and smooth continuity, encouraging strength and endurance through the dynamic Fire Horse year.

Smooth Sailing Fire-Glazed Spare Ribs

Slow-roasted spare ribs with a gentle, warming glaze

This dish embodies momentum, success, and forward movement, honoring the Horse's powerful drive while keeping energy balanced and well-directed.

Yin-Balancing Wild Black Mushroom Medley (V)

Earth-rich mushrooms gently braised for depth and calm

Created to cool and balance Fire Horse energy, this grounding dish restores healing and stability, bringing much-needed Water energy to the year.

Northern Harvest Vegetable Fried Rice (V)

Long grain rice with garden vegetables, Northern-style

Symbolizing plenty, nourishment, and community, this comforting dish anchors abundance and shared prosperity, an essential dish for the New Year table.

Auspicious Fortune Chicken

Golden slow cooked chicken in a special prepared sauce, Southern-style

A powerful symbol of wholeness, protection, and blessings for the household, inviting unity and good fortune in the year ahead. Chicken – ‘ji’ in Chinese stands for good fortune.

Spring Awakening Welcome Rolls (V)

Light, crisp spring rolls filled with fresh vegetables

Celebrating new beginnings, fresh opportunities, and rising energy, this dish welcomes Spring and the Horse’s forward-moving spirit.

Harmony Black Sesame Rice Balls in ginger broth (V)

Soft, warming, sesame filled rice ball

A symbol of unity, completion, and family harmony, black sesame also supports vitality and grounding, good Yin energy to have in the Fire year of 2026.